Afrika Eye - the South West's biggest celebration of African cinema and culture - returns to Watershed in November with a 10th anniversary edition that adds a festival song and African quilt auction to its traditional line-up of the best new and old Africa-related screenings, talks, debates, live music and participatory arts workshops. Our focus for 2015 is Senegal with the additional very topical theme of 'migration'.

Celebrations start with a debut performance of our anniversary anthem sung by Jill Draper and the Afrika Eye choir, followed by a screening of the brilliant tragic-comedy 'Hyenas' from Senegal. Then it's time to dance the night away Senegalese style at our after party with the highly rated singer and instrumentalist Amadou Diagne and Group Yakar.

Other highlights include fresh and classic films from Egypt, Ethiopia and Senegal; the world premiere of a new urban drama set in Bristol; and an auction for the fabulous community sewn African quilt (in aid of Refugee Crisis). Afrika Eye outreach programme this year includes the stunning 'Kafountine Lino Print Exhibition' at Hamilton House, with visiting artist Musa Camara. There will also be workshops at Spike Print Studios and Hamilton House, Senegalese music and dance workshops in primary schools, and family workshops in printing and music at the festival itself.
